

Enphase Energy Appoints General Manager for Asia-Pacific Region

MELBOURNE, Australia, Jan. 17, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Enphase Energy, Inc. (NASDAQ: ENPH), a global energy technology company and the world's leading supplier of solar microinverters, announced today that Wilf Johnston has been appointed general manager for the Asia-Pacific (APAC) region. He will oversee the development of new business opportunities in the region and the customization of solutions to best meet customer needs.

"We are excited to have Wilf join our team," said Dave Ranhoff, vice president and chief commercial officer at Enphase Energy. "He brings to Enphase many years of international executive management experience with leadership roles in sales, operations and product management. We look forward to Wilf's abilities to strengthen our APAC team and develop new business opportunities."

Wilf joins Enphase with more than 15 years of management and executive experience in technology growth companies. Before joining Enphase, he was the managing director of Flex Living, Australia where he led the introduction of several new products, specifically storage and connected energy solutions. Prior to Flex, Wilf was the managing director of Australia for SunEdison, including business unit management and P&L responsibility. He also held management positions at SunPower Corporation, where he created and operated the company's commercial and utility divisions in Australia. Earlier in his career, Wilf worked for various software companies in France, including Amadeus SAS and IDC Global. He earned Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering and Commerce degrees from the University of Western Australia.

"I am thrilled to join Enphase during a pivotal growth stage for the company," said Wilf Johnston. "I believe Enphase's technology is the ideal solution for Australia's evolving distributed energy landscape, and I look forward to working with our talented team to drive innovative go-to-market strategies and strengthen our position in the residential and light commercial markets."
